Subject: letter of recommendation

Hello Genna,

We at Premier Coin Galleries know how much it means to have good people working together to attain our goals. Credit card processing is something that is vital to our business now and in the future. Frontline processing has served our needs with a care and excellence that is only found in a company that truly values its customers . Wether it be answering questions for us or getting us the information and paperwork we need in an expedited fashion , Frontline processing has taken care of our business with professionalism . Premier Coin Galleries would not hesitate to recommend Frontline processing to anyone for their credit card processing needs . We look forward to a continued business relationship with Frontline for years to come.

Respectfully yours,

Michael Tramuto
